This 2016 Ford Transit Custom presents a 2.0 TDCi 290 Limited L1 H1 5dr model, it boasts a powerful 128 bhp 2.0 litre Euro 6 diesel engine, ensuring efficient and capable performance. The Limited trim level signifies a well equipped van, offering a comfortable and practical driving experience for any professional.

The engine power of 128 bhp means this Transit Custom offers a strong performance, making it better suited for carrying heavier loads or for longer journeys compared to models with lower power outputs. Its Euro 6 emission classification also indicates that it meets modern environmental standards. This combination of a robust engine, desirable trim, and exceptionally low mileage makes this 2016 Ford Transit Custom a standout choice in the commercial vehicle market.
